

I Can Be...

Girls ages 8-12 are invited to submit art work for the annual Provo Girls Summit Art Show. We will be accepting entries of both 2D and 3D works of art which can include but are not limited to painting, drawing, photography, sculpture, glass and metal works, and clay. Entries should respond to the theme "I can be..."

All entries will be displayed in an art show during the Provo Gallery Stroll at Neighborhood Art Center on March 1, 2019. Winners will be announced at the show on March 1, and displayed at Provo Girls Summit on March 7, 2019 at the Provo Library.

Prizes will be awarded in the following categories:

Ages 8-9: -Best Response to the Theme
-Best Art Overall

Ages 10-12: -Best Response to the Theme
-Best Art Overall

Show Rules

- All 2D art must be ready to hang, paper entries must be mounted on sturdy material or framed, and not exceed 24x24 inches
- All 3D art must be safe for display and not exceed 12x12 inches.
- No more than two entries per person
- No artwork may feature copyrighted material or licensed characters
- All artwork must be original and not previously displayed at other art shows
- All artwork must be picked up from the Neighborhood Art Center by March 13, 2019 and cannot be stored past that date.

How to Enter

- All art work must be turned in at the Neighborhood Art Center on Friday, February 22 (between 10am-5pm) or Wednesday, February 27 (between 10am-5pm) to be eligible for entry.
- Print and Fill out an entry form, if you are submitting more than one piece please print and fill out one form per piece.

